

TEMPLATE / IRONCLAD RESOURCE CENTER

Executive Security Reporting Template

A repeatable format for translating security operations into decisions leaders can act on.

Tell a clear security story

Template guidance for building a stronger, more repeatable security operation.

- What changed since the last update
- Why the change matters to the organization
- What action is underway and who owns it

Use decision-grade metrics

Template guidance for building a stronger, more repeatable security operation.

- Asset and telemetry coverage
- Material incidents and response progress
- High-risk exposure and remediation trends

End with next steps

Template guidance for building a stronger, more repeatable security operation.

- Decisions that need leadership support
- Target dates and expected outcomes
- Known risks that remain open
